What is it?

Decision Medicine is a 2 week program that introduces students to the field of medicine through personal mentoring opportunities and site visits with behind-the-scenes access to some of our regional hospitals, clinics and public health centers.

Where is it?

Decision Medicine 2016 will take place in Stockton at various locations, including each of our three hospitals, various clinics and inside actual private offices of participating physicians. In addition, students will go on multiple site visits to local healthcare related organizations, learning first-hand from actual in-the-field experiences.

What does it cost?

Decision Medicine 2016 is entirely FREE due to generous financial support from Kaiser Permanente and the Health Plan of San Joaquin. Additional support and resources come from the University of the Pacific, St. Joseph's Medical Center, Dameron Hospital, San Joaquin General Hospital, UC Davis Medical School, San Joaquin County Office of Education and California Pacific Medical Center.

Where do I apply?

Applications are only accepted online. All applications are due by March 1, 2016.

The initial selection/screening process will be based upon the students Grade Point Average (GPA), answers to several questions and a 200 word personal statement essay.

APPLY ONLINE BY MARCH 1, 2016
